Hebrews 13:16 – And do not neglect doing good and sharing, for with such sacrifices God is pleased.

God has gathered us together as brothers and sisters in Christ at Resurrection Presbyterian Church to encourage, exhort, support, sustain, and restore the hope and joy that we have in Jesus Christ through sharing and serving one another and our community through our material resources, skills/knowledge, and our time and ability. Please consider the ways you would like to be actively sharing your gifts in our life together and in the larger community.
